

universität freiburg

Institutional Virtues, Political Decision-Making, and Communication Under Uncertainty

15 March 2024

Online Workshop

Invited speakers

Jana Bacevic | Epistemic positioning, ambiguity and injustice: how not to communicate under uncertainty

Ian James Kidd | The fragility of institutional epistemic virtues

Maru Mormina | Evidence and expertise in times of crises: epistemic injustice and the manufacturing of ignorance in evidence-informed policymaking

Jaana Parviainen | Ignorance as resource and the communication of political decisions in the age of crises

Sara Rubinelli | Navigating the fog: strategies for institutional health communication in uncertainty and disinformation

Organized by

Melanie Altanian (University of Freiburg) & Silvia Ivani (University College Dublin) | A critical (re-) assessment of institutional epistemic humility: lessons from a pandemic crisis

Register via E-Mail to uncertainties@proton.me by March 13, 2024

