The Eucor focus area Sustainability invites researchers from across the Upper Rhine region to join an Exploratory Workshop that offers a platform for exchange, networking, and the development of new research collaborations in the field of sustainability research.

The program includes an introduction to current and upcoming funding opportunities relevant to cross-border and interdisciplinary/transdisciplinary sustainability projects. Participants will also explore cooperation possibilities and identify avenues for joint research initiatives.

A special focus will be on the MobiLab Roadshow 2027, which aims to connect and communicate sustainability research across the Upper Rhine Valley.
